

5903 Noble Avenue Van Nuys, California 91411

818-994-4661

www.asmac.org

The American Society of Music Arrangers and Composers offers scholarships to undergraduate and graduate college students who are studying music composition and arranging in an American college, conservatory, or university. You must be a currently paid student member of ASMAC.

Complete the application below and submit it with:

- 1) A copy of your student identification card.
- 2) Your resume.
- 3) A one-page statement of your career goals and aspirations.
- 4) Two letters of recommendations from faculty members and/or professional composers and arrangers who are familiar with your work.

Two to five scholarship are granted annually at the discretion of the ASMAC Board of Directors. Scholarship awardees will announced each year at the Annual Holiday Brunch. Among the scholarships available are: The Irwin Kostal Scholarship for Orchestration; The Pete Rugolo Scholarship for Composition; The David Blumberg Masterclass Scholarship; The Ray Charles Scholarship for Vocal Arranging; The Van Alexander Scholarship for Instrumental Arranging; and The Don Costa, Gordon Jenkins, Nelson Riddle Memorial Scholarship for Musical Excellence.

ASMAC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Due October 1 each year. Please submit by mail to the address given above.

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____ Email _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Name of School _____ Year in school _____

Intended date of graduation:

Major:

Highlights of your academic work: (include performances of your music, other prizes, competitions, special experiences)